

L.T. Stegana Jency, BLM, M Phil Social Work

Director, Centre for Child Rights and Development (CCRD)

Profile: Experienced child rights advocate and director of a state-level Education and Resource Centre dedicated to promoting and safeguarding child rights. Nationally recognized trainer for child protection initiatives, master trainer for school management committees, and committee member for child rights networks. Proficient in drafting child protection policies and conducting research on child rights issues.

Professional Experience:

- Overseeing field-level interventions for community-based child protection across multiple districts.
- Leading training programs on child protection and influencing policy formulation at the state level.
- Serving as a drafting committee member for child protection policies and legislation.
- Contributing to research studies on child rights and vulnerability mapping.

Advocacy and Networks:

- Convener and co-convener of prominent child rights networks in India.
- Committee member for various campaigns against child labor and sex-selective abortions.
- Acknowledged contributor to child protection publications and training manuals.

Education:

- M Phil in Social Work
- Bachelor's Degree in Laws and Management